

John Kemp is an Associate with Alpha Insights and an accomplished Information Technology professional with over 15 years of experience in solution implementation, consulting, operations, and client/project management.

He has extensive data architecture, business intelligence, and analytics experience in multiple verticals, including pension administration, financial services, gaming, and software development

He has successfully managed data warehousing , data mining, decision support, and master data management projects for both software vendors and for end clients.

John is known for his steady, disciplined, and thorough approach to managing large, complex projects and people, and has worked extensively in both Canada and the U.S.

Career

- Principal Consultant with Alpha Insights, SQL Power Group, Gavroshe Consulting
- Director Professional Services, Infobright
- Consultant to Ethoca Technologies, BCE Emergis, Procuron Inc.
- VP Technology & Operations, Excapsa Software Inc.
- Director Client Services, Cryptologic
- Group Manager, Consulting Services, SAS Institute
- KPMG, Thomas Cook, E&Y

Professional

- MBA, Richard Ivey
- MMA, Queens
- B.Sc. University of Guelph

Representative Accomplishments

- Successfully implemented a large data warehousing initiative for a major government pension administration organization
- Delivered a data architecture strategy & implementation for a Fortune 100 organization
- Delivered a web-based regulatory reporting solution for a large provincial regulator
- Led a professional services team to multiple successful implementations, meeting the revenue expectations for a software company
- Led the development of the data centre, technical infrastructure, and supporting services for a major credit card issuer
- Created a Program Management office for a software and solution delivery company, including all processes and SLAs
- Provided technology strategy and implementation leadership to a new B2B ecommerce firm
- Led the development of a data warehouse to provide operational BI functionality to sales and support staff
- Played a key role in the development of a three person start-up to an organization of over one hundred employees and revenue of $90 million
- Managed relationships with licensees, signing new contracts and generating increased revenues
- Led multiple successful data warehousing and related projects for both data services providers and end customers
- Known for an ability to recover projects in trouble, particularly in the data warehousing space