

Alex Schoijett is an Associate with Alpha Insights and seasoned hands-on executive with 30+ years of progressive positions in domestic and international IT environments.

He is a trusted advisor with broad industry experience in fast-paced industries like Capital Markets, Energy Markets, Telecom, and Insurance.

His focus is strategic management (definition, governance, communication, Enterprise Architecture), solution delivery of complex transformation initiatives, and performance assessment.

Alex played a key role in the formation of Alpha Insights and brings hands on experience in Strategy, Program Delivery, IT Operations and a global perspective to his clients.

Career

- Alpha Insights Associate & President, Libra Enterprise Consulting
- Kerenor Energy Solutions, President
- SVP Enterprise Architecture, Aviva North America
- VP & Chief Information Architect, Rogers
- VP Architecture and Infrastructure, OPG
- VP Energy Markets Systems, OPG
- VP Information Technology, RBC Dominion Securities

Professional

- MBA York University, Schulich School of Business
- Engineer, Electronics, UTN Argentina

Representative Accomplishments

- Led the development of an enterprise architecture strategy for the regionalization and transformation of a global financial institution
- Was the Chief Architect on a “bet the company” transformation plan for a major communications service provider
- Managed large 7x24 IT operations supporting Trading Floor environments.
- Implemented the IT processes, applications, and technology required by OPG to participate in the wholesale and retail energy markets and processes millions of transactions per day.
- Managed multiple successful implementations and roll-outs of new technology in both computing and telecommunications.
- Managed the world-wide implementation of the Y2K program for a major financial institution.
- Provided consultancy services for companies in the Financial, Pharmaceutical, Hardware Manufacturing, and Public Sectors.
- Created governance models for IT architecture, processing and storage, telecom and facilities, and security and risk management.
- Managed a multi-year program that delivered a production portfolio of 93 applications and 167 interfaces to different systems.
- Negotiated multi-million dollar agreements with selected vendor and partner organizations.
- Designed and prototyped the first 3-tier systems in a major bank, now used internationally for real-time settlement and derivative credit checking.