

Andrée Shore is an Alpha Insights Advisory Board Member with experience in the private and public sectors developing and managing complex, innovative projects and programs and transformation initiatives.

For many years as a Senior Management Consultant and Program and Project Manager she established and managed structured approaches to achieving business objectives while minimizing the inherent risk through team work and communications with diverse stakeholder groups.

Creative and intelligent, she is an acknowledged leader and team builder obsessed with successful outcomes. She creates a positive and healthy workplace culture and has mastered the art of “leading from behind”.

Representative Accomplishments

Career

- Independent Consultant and Senior Project Manager to multiple global corporations
- TALPX Inc., VP Client Services, VP IT, and Chief Technology Officer
- Call Centre Consultants, Owner and Managing Partner
- CIBC, Project Director
- Noranda, Manager, IT Support Services
- Hudson’s Bay Company, Methodologies and Information Centre Analyst
- DMR & Associates, Senior Consultant

Professional

- CAMS (Certified Anti Money Laundering Specialist)
- PMP, Bates Certified PM
- CMC
- M.Sc., M.Ed.
- Certification in Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR)

- Created the PMO and managed a team of Project Managers representing all lines of business and administrative groups towards developing FATCA Compliance solutions for the enterprise (banking)
- Created the Enterprise Program Methodology, Project Management governance framework, associated processes and training courses, and coached team members to standardize project delivery across a major bank
- Managed a portfolio of projects to ensure a bank’s compliance with anti-money laundering and anti terrorism financing regulations
- Accountable Executive and Senior Program Manager for suite of application development, infrastructure and operational and client service solutions, together creating a highly successful b2b e-commerce exchange. Launched on time and on budget, it served thousands of customers including all major players in the North American lumber industry.
- Lead Business Analyst for first technology and business R&D projects leading to telephone banking, smart card and cheque imaging at a major bank
- Business PM for first Interactive Voice Recognition banking application in Canada
- With Economic Development Commissioner of North Bay, added 2000+ jobs to the region through enhancing attractiveness of the municipality for investment
- Member of small team to achieve Service Ontario first business model and business case approval by Cabinet in Ontario. Service Ontario is now represented by a vast array of direct services to Ontarians
- Authored papers on multiple topics, aimed at translating best IT practice for Business Executives.